Between:

Dr. K. Chandan, S/o. K. Narasaiah,
Hindu, aged about 41 years,
OCC: Reader, Statistics in Nagarjuna
University, Nagarjuna Nagar, Guntur,
R/o. Guntur Town & District.

... Petitioner

And

The Vice Chancellor, Nagarjuna
University, Nagarjuna Nagar, Guntur, and two others.

... Respondents

Order:

This writ petition has been filed seeking Mandamus declaring that the proceedings in No. NU//SPL-SEC (E)/S3/MS.C.Stat (F)/March 98, dated 08-08-1998 of the Vice Chancellor of the Nagarjuna University, as illegal, arbitrary, and without jurisdiction.

2. By the impugned order, it was ordered that the petitioner, an Internal Examiner, Department of Statistics, University College, shall not be given any future assignment relating to examinations (Practical & Theory) for a period of three years from 1998-99 academic year.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that before issuing the impugned proceedings, no notice was issued to the petitioner. In fact, respondents admitted the said fact in their counter affidavit.

4. This Court while admitting the writ petition, by its order dated 09-09-1998, ordered interim suspension of the impugned proceedings.

5. The impugned order, directs non-assignment of examination related matters for a period of three years. The petitioner filed the writ petition in the year 1997 and obtained interim suspension of the impugned order. Since the three years period had already elapsed and the interim order granted by this court had worked out for itself, no cause survives for adjudication in the writ petition.

6. The writ petition is accordingly closed. No costs.
